

Fylde Fields Olive Grove & Gardens

What we do...

Situated in amongst some of the premier growing countryside in the land, Fylde Fields is a boutique olive grove. Along with the Olive Oil the owners Joan and Tony Ashton also grow a variety of other fruit and vegetables that they make into an ever-changing selection of tasty products. Wherever possible they use their own or locally grown quality produce, always fresh and in season.

We make personalised gift packages which can be customised to your individual tastes for family, friends or business clients.

The shop at Fylde Fields is open for farm sales by request and visitors to the region are welcome to drop by or small group tours can be arranged.

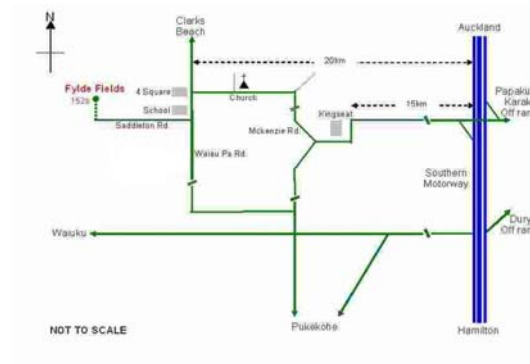

We can also come to you for talks, tastings and presentations about olive growing, oil and preserve manufacturing and other aspects of running a small lifestyle enterprise.

Olive Oils

We are a small grove that picks, presses and bottles olive oil using Traditional methods to ensure quality and taste.

We bottle several varietal olive oils available according to season and these varieties have their own unique tastes.

Our range of olive oils includes well established New Zealand and overseas varieties all grown in the local area, such as...

- Ascolano
- Koroneiki
- Verdale
- J5

To accompany these oils we also make our own range of Dukkah that is ideal for dipping with bread and coating meats.

Preserves

Using seasonal and locally sourced produce where possible, we make a selection of tasty preserves to accompany any meal.

All of our products are made by hand to our very exacting standards in small batches without any preservatives or colourings so that you can be sure that what you are eating is fresh, tasty and only includes natural ingredients.

Our ever changing seasonal range includes
